Dear Jordan,

Hey Buhba!! Well this past week has been hard us. We lost our bball game Monday against Jenks but we won against Sands Springs. WOOHOO!! Those were sophomore games; the first Varsity game is Tuesday!! You better be there! Yup, we play Jenks & I can't wait to see the outcome! Well I'm sure you know this but Union won the State Championship in football. We beat Jenks and took Gold! We might be getting a new pastor at church, Bob Pittenger, and he I is pretty good I think, I think Will is taking this pretty hard. It hasn't really hit me REAL hard yet, but I'm sure it will. Christmas is coming soon, Yup sure is. O & guess what? 3 months, 2 weeks, and 2 days till I get my permit! You better beware I'm coming down the road! Mark said he would be a chaperone if I ever need one. He said he would even walk me out on senior night! He would do anything to fill your spot but it's going to still be difficult. Daddy gave me a hug the other night cause I needed one from you; but it just wasn't the same. I didn't really like the lil' caterpillar on you lip. LOL Good joke, but EWWWY! Well I know you're busy doing the job God needed you to do so I'll let you get back to work; but never leave me Buhba! Make me & mom, & dad your side job cause we still need you.

I love you Buhba!!!
